

Lord London, 8 PM from Haven Riviera Hotel

Q + Have you talked about this?

A: I submitted the question to someone, got back, "Not intended"
(i.e. pursuing this).

But someone else, political, is a good position
to know, said:

1) What I had informed ~~the~~ [Cuban takeover] Russia absolutely didn't happen. (couldn't have, because] it would be known by now — and there's no bit of it; too many people could have had to be eliminated to keep this secret...'

2) But (he said) "I would suggest, based on what & have heard, ["informal rumor": sic] another explanation for this incident;

the Russians were battling ... Russians (!) for control of the base.

[one: Why?]

Became a local Russian faction [or - so?]
was unhappy with the decision/order to disband the ministry."

me: But then on the next night: (morning of 28th)

| SC: No, it can only earlier — perhaps the night of the 26th.

DC: That's the date of the incident; end of K's private letter proposing the deal on which
